To the Men of Sigma Nu

Gentlemen:

I would like to extend my congratulations to the Alumni Association of the Epsilon Epsilon Chapter of Sigma Nu at Oklahoma State University on your decision to rebuild our chapter house. As President of Oklahoma State University and as a proud member of Epsilon Epsilon Chapter of Sigma Nu, I appreciate the leadership the Sigma Nu undergraduates and alumni have provided the University. This administration fully endorses this project as a key element in the continuity of the success of our fraternity.

I am pleased to report that the Greek system is alive and well at Oklahoma State. It has been and will continue to be an essential element of our campus. Other fraternities are planning and carrying out projects to improve their Chapter houses, which mirrors an ongoing University initiative to improve the undergraduate housing experience. The decision to provide an excellent living and social environment with first-rate study and meeting accommodations will enhance the overall college experience for our undergraduates.

Again, I applaud the launching of the capital campaign for the Epsilon Epsilon Sigma Nu Chapter House of which I will be a part. I do hope my fellow graduates of the Epsilon Epsilon Chapter will respond to the capital campaign with the degree of generosity that reflects an appreciation of what Sigma Nu has done for them as well as a desire to see the Chapter be a positive factor in the lives of young men for generations to come.

Congratulations and good luck!

Sincerely,
